

New Seerey-Lester Wilderness Workshop At Triple "D"

September 28- October 1, 2022

Shadows of the Past. 16x20 Oil on Panel
By Suzie Seerey-Lester
using Triple D's Mountain Lion

Imagine..... you are 5 feet away from a Mountain lion drinking from a pond. Or having a pack of wolves' rush by you while playing. Grizzly bear standing on its hind legs staring at you, a foot away!!! You can experience all this and more with Suzie at her FAVORITE location for a Wilderness Workshop - (in the shadows of Glacier National Park). Triple "D"! This will be so special because you will have the fall colors as a backdrop to these unique animals.

Mountain Lion

This is the only class where you will be able to photograph and sketch amazing wildlife in a natural environment, from just a few feet away. Each morning you will go into the field, you will have 2- 3 species to choose from, just to name a few: wolf packs, mountain lion, fox, bobcat, bear, otter, lynx.

Black Wolf

Take your art to the next level

- You will watch Suzie as she demonstrates her various techniques using oil and acrylic.
- All you need is a sketchbook.
- Suzie will cover such things as composition, use of light, values, perspective, as well as painting animals, fur, grass, snow, water, and more.
- You will be captivated with what Suzie has to say about the business aspects of art, including photographing your paintings to consignment agreements and copyright law.
- Bring three images of your paintings, or the actual paintings for critique. They can be new paintings you are having trouble with; older paintings you feel need improvement, or pieces you are proud of.
- This is a great learning experience for everyone. It is a fun class with lots of surprises.

This class will be limited in size, so sign up now! The class is $1,350.00. Please contact Glenda at Triple "D" to sign up and inquire about lodging.
