

“The Secrets of Successful Wildlife Photography”
December 8th-10th, 2023 (December 11 weather day)

More than just more camera techniques, not that you won't learn that too. Included will be use of blinds and hides, using calls, effective use of camouflage, reading game and approaching, and much more. Join professional photographer Nick Fucci for this 3-day workshop and come away with the tools to take your work to a higher level. We'll be the guests of the acclaimed Triple D Game Ranch in beautiful Northwest Montana.

Nick is the past president of the Alaska Society of Outdoor and Nature Photographer's and one of the founders and past president of the Northwest Montana Nature Photographer's. He's taught photography since the mid 90's at Anchorage Community College in their Community Schools program and most recently for 17 years at Flathead Valley Community College in their Continuing Education program. He currently owns and operates Nick Fucci Outdoor & Nature Photography; www.nickfucciphoto.com.

The workshop includes both classroom and 7 field sessions during the 3-day event. This is a unique opportunity to photograph wildlife under winter conditions. There is a fourth day scheduled if a weather day is needed or for additional wildlife photo sessions which will be offered by Triple D for $175/session/person.

Cost of the workshop is $945/pp.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to expand your knowledge and become a more successful photographer in the field.
