

Cheryl King Wildlife Photography and Digital Art Workshop

September 22-24, 2023
(Optional Weather Day September 25, 2023)
At the spectacular Triple "D" Ranch in Kalispell Montana

Cheryl King is a professional artist and photographer who travels far and wide to capture the essence of the animal kingdom. She is a member of Women Artist's of the West and the American Impressionist Society. She recently developed a technique merging her two art forms into what she calls Digital Hybrid Paintings.

Come join Cheryl for this 3 day event featuring 6 wildlife photo sessions for the introductory price of $1050 ($250 non-refundable deposit is required) with the option of additional sessions for the low rate of $175 per species.

Tentative Species for Sept. 22-25:

Grizzly	Coyote
Mountain Lion	Bobcat
Lynx	Badger
Wolves	Snow Leopard
River Otter	Several Babies
Raccoon	Fisher
Porcupine	Pine Marten
Foxes - Red, Cross and Gray

*more can be seen on Triple D's website: triplewildlife.com

Each morning the Triple D staff will take several of the animals to natural settings for you to photograph. In the afternoons we meet at the Ranch's conference room where Cheryl will instruct you on how to import your photos into a program where you will learn her vibrant painting techniques. This can be used for enhancing photos or for designing compositions for future paintings. Beneficial for both photographers and artists alike!

AN EXPERIENCE OF A LIFETIME!!

At the threshold of Glacier National Park, Autumn in NW Montana offers a unique opportunity for spectacular color and light; a surefire method for success!

September is also when the animals coats are changing colors and thickening up for the upcoming winter months, making them perfect models!
